The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Lord God Almighty. Thou who art the highest and the best, so purge and chasten our hearts that all that is highest and best in Thee may come unto us; and make us mindful that without Thee there is for us only sadness in store.

And as we see the prostrate nations of Europe hoveling around in sorrow and sin and shame, may we learn a lesson thereby, and not follow their false morals or the frivolity of their effete fashions. Give unto us a stern simplicity and a rugged honesty, and may we pride ourselves more in character than in a false sophistication; and help us at all times to seek the highest and the best, that we may honor Thee and serve the world in the place that Thou hast given unto us. Amen.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman who is the sponsor of this bill, Mr. McCaig, of Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McCaig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny how the items in the report of the Secretary of the Commonwealth for $9,500 are made up?

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, in the bill for the Secretary of the Commonwealth the items were for a filing system and the matter was taken up by the Department and was before the Commitee and passed by the Committee and is now before the House.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Is that on a contract with the Department?

Mr. McCAIG. I understand it was.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did you see the contract?

Mr. McCAIG. No, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You cannot tell us what items the contract contained—is that true?

Mr. McCAIG. For the installation of a filing system. It was agreed upon by the Board and given to this Department.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Take up the next one, the Auditor General's Department. Can you tell us how that deficiency was reduced from $135,000 to $110,000?

Mr. McCAIG. Salaries; amount necessary for four months, to February 1st, 1921, $120,000. Balance 1919 appropriation, $94,000, a deficiency of $26,000. Expenses of deputies, traveling auditors, special investigators, deficiency September 1st, 1920 to January 1st, 1921, $35,000. Estimated deficiency from February 1st to May 31st, 1921, $10,000; making, in all, $45,000. Collection of delinquent corporation taxes, deficiency July 1st, 1920, $37,000; incidental expenses, etc., deficiency estimated to May 31st, 1921, $2,000. In all, $110,000. Cost of advertising State Treasurer's monthly statement, deficiency $10,000.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Is there an appropriation for that last item in the last appropriation bill? I am referring now to "advertising" which you gave last?

Mr. McCAIG. Not having the bill before me, I cannot answer that question.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How is it, if there was only an itemized statement of $110,000, how was it that when this bill came out and was reported by your committee and read for the second time, that it contained $135,000?

Mr. McCAIG. The Committee in its wisdom deemed it could get along with less.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You said you have an itemized statement of $110,000. Of course, they could get along with less, but if the itemized staement was $110,000, how was it that they asked for $135,000 in the original?

Mr. McCAIG. I cannot answer that. I can only answer for what is put out from the committee.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did he tell you how many clerks he had hired?

Mr. McCAIG. It does not appear on this list.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did he tell you in Committee how many he had hired?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir, twenty-six extra ones.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did he tell you for what purpose he had hired those clerks?

Mr. McCAIG. For extra work.

Mr. ALEXANDER. To do what?

Mr. McCAIG. On special investigations.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Not, truly, one and all of these clerks; they were not all on special investigation.

Mr. McCAIG. I am not in that department; I cannot answer the question, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did the Auditor General tell you or inform you that in 1918 he employed clerks and sent them to Media, after having stated that the Register of Wills in Delaware County had collected one hundred per cent. of the collateral inheritance tax and when the Register of Wills asked what they were to do, he was not able to tell him that; did he tell you that?

Mr. McCAIG. I don't know; I cannot tell you.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I refer next to the Treasury Department.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. DUNN.Mr. Speaker, this bill has been carefully considered in the Appropriations Committee. The Chairman of the Appropriation Committee does not have the information bearing on these departments at his finger ends. I think it is unfair for the gentleman from Delaware to interrogate the chairman of the Appropriations Committee on the items of these various departments, as it is an impossibility for him to be able to give them.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is not well taken. The gentleman from Delaware will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I refer you now to the Treasury Department. Can you tell me how the item of $37,500 as originally reported was reduced by your committee as made up to $32,500?

Mr. McCAIG. I have a letter here from the department which I will read: "Replying to your favor of February tenth for an itemized statement of the amount requested by the State Treasurer for the payment of balance of the appropriation year for salaries for regular and extra clerical hire in this department, I beg to advise that it will take $34,500.00, $32,000.00 of which is to be used in payment of regular hire and $2500.00 in payment of extra clerical hire, part of which has been already earned by clerks now in the service.

The last Legislature appropriated to this department the sum of $80,000.00 for extra clerical hire, which appropriation was exhausted on November 15, 1920, since which time we have been obliged to charge our entire pay-roll for clerical hire to the amount of appropriation allowed for clerical hire by the Session of 1919, namely: $90,800.00. This latter appropriation still has a balance of $1339.43 unexpended."

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did you have an itemized statement of how it was made up?

Mr. McCAIG. That is the itemized statement I gave, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That does not tell you how many clerks, or anything of the kind.

Mr. McCAIG. That is the letter that was written to the committee and the action as it appears in the bill was taken thereon.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Turning to the School Employees' Retirement Board, on page six of the bill, will you tell us how that $47,000 was made up, please?

Mr. McCAIG. I have here a very large report which was laid before the committee, each of whom had an opportunity of inspecting the same. It would take me some time to read it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The House has not had an opportunity.

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The one hundred and fifty-five members outside of that committee have not had any opportunity, have they?

Mr. McCAIG. The files of the committee are always open to any member of the House.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The hearings of this committee on this Deficiency Bill were not open, were they?

Mr. McCAIG. Any member of the House was privileged to be there.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I told you I wanted to be present, didn't I?

Mr. McCAIG. Sir?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I told you I desired to be present, didn't I?

Mr. McCAIG. The meeting was announced from the rostrum of the House, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The deficiency in the contingent reserve fund as provided in the second paragraph of the school retirement fund, will you tell us how that $195,000.00 was made up?

Mr. McCAIG. The total amount which the State should contribute to the Contingent Reserve Fund during the biennium, ending June 30, 1921, is $227,442.00. Of this amount $32,442.00 has been appropriated, leaving a deficiency for this fund of $195,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. McCaig, as I understand, this paragraph says that is under the act of 1917,—this appropriation. Is that true?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. As I understand, the appropriation of 1919 was $32,442.00?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And the deficiency was figured at $195,000.00?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, from these items, the deficiency was more than the appropriation in 1919. That is correct, isn't it?

Mr. McCAIG. The proposition was a new one, and they were unable to figure it out accurately, and therefore the estimation.

Mr. ALEXANDER. It was two years old in 1919?

Mr. McCAIG. It just started in 1919.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I say, it was two years old in 1919, the act was 1917.

Mr. McCAIG. It was not to be effective for two years.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Take the next item of the deficiency in the State annuity reserve fund. What was the appropriation there. Mr. McCaig? I am referring now to the appropriation of 1919 for that specific purpose.

Mr. McCAIG. The amount contributed by the state was $691,218.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. $691,558.00, wasn't it, Mr. McCaig?

Mr. McCAIG. $691,218.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And the deficiency was figured $1,025,000.00.

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, that is what this bill calls for.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is correct, isn't it?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Now take the Insurance Department—now take the Department of Forestry on page seven, Mr. McCaig. What was the appropriation there?

Mr. McCAIG. What department do you mean, the Department of Insurance or Forestry.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The Department of Forestry, on page seven of the bill

Mr. McCAIG. What is the question?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I asked you what the appr[illegible] there was in 1919?

Mr. McCAIG. I can't give you that.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do I understand that you do not have it?

Mr. McCAIG. $90,000.00 was the appropriation for the two years.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The original appropriation was $100,000.00.

Mr. McCAIG. Sir?

Mr. ALEXANDER. The original appropriation was $100,000.00, wasn't it, and was cut down by the governor to $90,000.00.

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir; as I recall; I don't just recall, but I believe that is correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The House and Senate passed an appropriation of $100,000.00, and the Governor cut down to $90,000.00.

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Now, take up the Department of Mines—but before we leave the Department of Forestry, do you have an account of how that $65,000.00 item was made up?

Mr. McCAIG. It is here if you want it, but it is pretty lengthy.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you mind filing it so that it will appear on the record?

Mr. McCAIG. I have no objection. (For reprot see Appendix.)

Mr. ALEXANDER. Now, in the Department of Mines, for the payment of the necessary and actual traveling expenses of the mine inspectors for the two years ending May 1, 1921, can you tell us what appropriation there was in 1919?

Mr. McCAIG. Will you repeat that?

Mr. ALEXANDER. What was the appropriation for that purpose in 1919?

Mr. McCAIG. For what purpose?

Mr. ALEXANDER. For the payment of the amount necessary to pay the actual traveling expenses of the mine inspectors for the two years ending May 31, 1921.

Mr. McCAIG. $32,000.000 were appropriated for that purpose.

Mr. ALEXANDER. An appropriation of what?

Mr. McCAIG. $32,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Now you take the next item. This is the first paragraph of the bill, for the payment of the amount necessary to pay the actual traveling expenses of the mine inspectors for two years. I have it $440,000.00, is that correct?

Mr. McCAIG. Approved in the sum of $385,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The original appropriation that was appropriated was $440,000.00, wasn't it?

Mr. McCAIG. Correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And it was reduced by the Governor to $385,000.00?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Go over to Public Grounds and Buildings on page eight, for the payment of deficiency in appropriation for salaries of the chief and assistant engineers of the Capitol power plant, and all other employees required in conducting, cleaning and making repairs necessary for the safety and keeping of the buildings and grounds. The original deficiency as reported by your committee was $30,000.00. What was the original appropriation in 1919?

McCAIG. Just a minute, Mr. Alexander, we will find that for you—$450,000.00, approved.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That was the amount approved by the Governor, was it not?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Was that the amount approved by the Governor?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The original appropriation was $[illegible] was it not?

Mr. McCAIG. Correct.

[illegible] was reported out and read [illegible]

[illegible] Am I [illegible] in that, Mr. [illegible]?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Am I correct in that statement?

Mr. McCAIG. May I ask you to repeat the question?

Mr. ALEXANDER. This bill was reported out by your committee, read the first and second times, referred back to the committee and then reported the second time, read the third time and passed final passage, and the change was not made in it until it was finally recalled from the Senate, is that correct?

Mr. McCAIG. That is correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How was there such a discrepancy in that amount, from $30,000.00 down to $7,321.28—a matter of nearly $23,000.00?

Mr. McCAIG. We discovered that the department had unemployed clerks, and it was an error, and we corrected it in committee.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I didn't get that answer, Mr. McCaig.

Mr. McCAIG. It was corrected in committee, and discovered to be an error.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What was the error?

Mr. McCAIG. Unemployed clerks.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you mean to say that the department had charged up for unemployed clerks to the extent of $23,000.00?

Mr. McCAIG. We discovered an error, and it was corrected in committee.

Mr. ALEXANDER. But they were charged up in the first place but they asked for a deficiency of $23,000.00 for unemployed clerks?

Mr. McCAIG. It was clerks authorized, but not appointed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Now take the next paragraph, for the payment of deficiency in appropriation for the cost of general supplies, including stationery, supplies, furniture, fuel, repairs, alterations and improvements and other matters required by the Legislature, the several department boards and commissions of the state government and the executive mansion, as set forth and included in the general annual schedule of supplies for the state government. What was the original appropriation in 1919?

Mr. McCAIG. $475,000.00, approved by the Governor.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What was it originally?

Mr. McCAIG. $500,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And it was reduced by the Governor to $475,000.00?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The original deficiency asked for by the department was $700,092.06; is that correct?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And was so reported and read the second time, was it not, at that figure? and later there was cut off $140,092.06? How was it that there was a deficiency of $700,092.06, and how are you going along and pay that deficiency after cutting off $142,092.06?

Mr. McCAIG. I did not get that question.

Mr. ALEXANDER. If there was a deficiency of $700,092.06, how are you going to pay that deficiency after cutting out $140,092.06?

Mr. McCAIG. Part of it was estimated to run from January 1st to July 1st.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How do they make up that account, how is the account made up? They have figured this down to cents, to $92.06, but when it comes back they lose all respect for the fine figures and drop the $92.06, and say that $560,000.00 will do. Why the $92.06 subterfuge in the first place?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, my point or order is that I do not think it is proper for a member of the House to use the language that the gentleman from Philadelphia [illegible] used—[illegible] I do not think it is proper to say [illegible] No such deficiency has been asked by the Appropriation Committee or any [illegible] committee.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I will change the language a little bit so that it will not hurt my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Glass.

Mr. GLASS. You cannot hurt me.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I guess that is true. Why were the figures $92.06 which apparently brought the figuring down to a question of dollars and cents, why were they cut off and $560,000.00 said to be sufficient?

Mr. McCAIG. I quote from an itemized statement of the Public Grounds and Buildings: "These mentioned amounts and bills covering, have been audited, found correct, are covered by orders from this department, on requisitions from the various departments, boards and commissions of the state government. Amount of bills audited and prepared for presentation to the Auditor General for payment, $224,228.36; amount of loose bills not yet audited nor prepared for payment, to be found in this department, in the storeroom of this department and in the hands of the various departments, boards and commissions awaiting their approval, etc., in the amount of $252,529.99. The 1919 appropriation in the amount of $475,000.00 became exhausted as of July 1, 1920. From July 1, 1920 to February 1, 1921, you will note the amount of bills as above equal $476,818.35, or an average of $59,602.29 per month, and we do not anticipate any further advances in prices nor much decrease. Therefore the monthly average of $59,602.29, or for three months to May 1, 1921, $178,806.87. The amount of our deficiency therefore is $655,625.22, and it was cut by the committee to $560,000.00 because they had figured a month longer than they had anticipated."

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, they figured to what time?

Mr. McCAIG. They figured to July 1, 1921.

Mr. ALEXANDER. To July 1, 1921?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did they give you an itemized statement of what it is for?

Mr. McCAIG. That is all here.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did they tell you what was done, what work was performed?

Mr. McCAIG. There is a lot of it here. If you want to come over here and read it, you can.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did they tell you of any buildings?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Does it give the names of any of the buildings? Is the Claster Building or the Ensminger building mentioned in the schedule?

Mr. McCAIG. This is all for supplies, as I understand it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What is it?

Mr. McCAIG. All for supplies.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I did not hear you.

Mr. McCAIG. For supplies.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Only for supplies? No alterations repairs or new work in that?

Mr. McCAIG. It is a summary of the purchase of general supplies, including stationery supplies, furniture, fuel, repairs, alterations and other matters, etc., included in the annual schedule of supplies for the years 1920-21 to May 31, 1921.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Does it say what those alterations and repairs are? On what buildings?

Mr. McCAIG. No, it does not specify.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Does it give the names of any buildings? Perhaps we will find it in the next item. I am going to read the next paragraph as it was originally reported, and as it is shown in the appropriation bill of 1919, on page 49 in the original appropriation book, "For the payment of deficiency in appropriation for the purchase of any article of furniture, furnishings, stationery, supplies, fuel or any other matters or things, and for the payment of the cost of any repairs, alterations or improvements, the want of which may not have been anticipated at the time of the issue of the annual schedule and which do not appear in the same and for which requisition is made on the superintendent for improvements, alterations, repairs and furnishings at the executive mansion, which appropriation [illegible] be known as the boards general fund" the sum of $525,788.02." Can you tell us for what that was expended? In the first place, will you give us the appropriation for 1919 for that specific item?

Mr. McCAIG. One omoment, please. $150,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. $150,000.00? And there is a deficiency report of $525,788.02. Can you tell us how that deficiency and the $150,000.00 has been spent?

Mr. McCAIG. Just a moment. Yes, sir. "Bills audited and prepared for certificates to the Auditor General for payment, $28,413.63; amount of loose bills not audited for settlement, and upon regular requisitions, $186,053.56; December bill of Central Construction Corporation for Claster building, $20,509.65; January bill of Central Construction Corporation for Claster building, $11,414.26; estimated amount required for payment of bills to May 31, 1921, or since date of exhaustion of appropriation as of September 1, 1920, nine months at $15,433.29 per month, $138,899.34; estimated amount by contractor to complete Claster building, $67,242.45; estimated amount to complete emergency buildings in Capital Park, $45,000.00; total, $497,537.89." It was cut to $450,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That originally was four hundred ninety-seven and some odd thousand dollars, why did they ask for a deficiency of $525,788.02? Is that explained to you?

Mr. McCAIG. They estimated until July 1, 1921, when they should have estimated to June 1st.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Why was it that the phraseology of that paragraph was changed from the original phraseology of the original appropriation of 1919?

Mr. McCAIG. I cannot answer that. I did not prepare the bill, Mr. Alexander.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Isn't it your understanding, as chairman of the Appropriation Committee, that that paragraph refers only to the executive mansion, and nothing appropriated in there was to go for anything except for supplies, etc., for the executive mansion?

Mr. McCAIG. Will you please repeat that question?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Was it not your understanding that, as chairman of the Appropriation Committee, there was nothing included in that paragraph except furnishings, stationery, supplies, fuel or any other matters or things, improvements, alterations, repairs and furnishings of the executive mansion only.

Mr. McCAIG. No.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Have you examined the appropriation bills back for several years to see what the different appropriations were of that one item that would indicate they have reference only to the executive mansion?

Mr. McCAIG. No. I have not examined them.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is not your understanding I understand? Is that correct?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Have you anything here, is there any report there from the Department of Public Grounds and Buildings relative to the Ensminger building? I did not hear you read it in that last paragraph.

Mr. McCAIG. I ask for your indulgence for a moment, Mr. Alexander. I have not.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You have no mention of it. As I understand, the Claster building is a building that does not belong to the Capitol,—the state,—rather?

Mr. McCAIG. That is true.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is a private building. There has been considerable work performed on the Ensminger building also, hasn't there?

Mr. McCAIG. I do not know anything about that, I do not have it here.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Some of these appropriations surely from the original or the deficiency were spent on the Ensminger building, were they not?

Mr. McCAIG. I so understand.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What is that?

Mr. McCAIG. I so understand.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You so understand? Do you know from whom the Commonwealth rents the buildings?

Mr. McCAIG. I did not get that. Will you repeat that question?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Which question, Mr. McCaig?

Mr. McCAIG. Relative to the Ensminger building.

Mr. ALEXANDER. My recollection was that the question was, "Was not some of the appropriation, of this amount, included in the deficiency spent on the Ensminger building?"

Mr. McCAIG. If there was, I have no knowledge of it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You have no knowledge of it. Do you know from whom the Commonwealth leases the Ensminger building?

Mr. McCAIG. No, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You don't?

Mr. McCAIG. No.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Was the information given to you as the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations that this building was,—the lease of this building, rather,—was in the name of Norman D. Gray, a resident of West Chester, assistant librarian of the state, and an appointee of Senator Eyre, and that he released it to the Commonwealth. Was that information given to you in the Appropriation Committee?

Mr. McCAIG. If such is the fact, I have no knowledge of it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You do not have that information, then? Do you know anything about the leasing or contracting for repairs on the Claster building?

Mr. McCAIG. I did hear.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you know who leases it?

Mr. McCAIG. I understand the Department of Public Grounds and Buildings.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Leases it from whom?

Mr. McCAIG. Sir?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you know whom it leases it from?

Mr. McCAIG. Henry C. Claster.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Did you see the lease?

Mr. McCAIG. No, I have not. I did not see the lease.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you know anything about the contract between the Commonwealth and Claster?

Mr. McCAIG. I have a copy of that here.

Mr. ALEXANDER. A copy of the contract?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you care to file that?

Mr. McCAIG. A copy of the lease?

Mr. ALEXANDER. A copy of the condition in the lease as to what the State was to do as to repairs. What is the term of the lease?

Mr. McCAIG. Do you want me to read it?

Mr. ALEXANDER. What is the term of the lease?

Mr. McCAIG. Ten years.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Ten years? At what rental?

Mr. McCAIG. $48,000 a year.

Mr. ALEXANDER. $48,000 a year. What is to become of the building and the repairs, and so forth, that have been placed in it by the Commonwealth, at the end of the ten years?

Mr. McCAIG. My information is only as to the lease, and not as to any alterations.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Does the lease say anything about what is to become of it, what repairs are to be made on it?

Mr. McCAIG. I will read it for you.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Suppose you just file it, Mr. McCaig, and leave it go in the record.

Mr. McCAIG. I will do that. (For copy of lease see Appendix.)

Mr. ALEXANDER. Are you satisfied to do that?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Now Mr. McCaig, turning to page 10, for deficiency in appropriation for the payment of cost of electric current, light and steam, for heat light and power, for the Public Grounds and Buildings, where not supplied from the Capitol plant, what was the original appropriation for that?

Mr. McCAIG. Just a minute, Mr. Alexander, I will give you that.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. McCaig, we will just pass that if you do not have it.

Mr. McCAIG. No, we won't pass anything until we get through. We are here to explain if we can. The original appropriation was $25,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. $25,000.00, and the deficiency requested in the first instance was $15,000.00.

Mr. McCAIG. Harrisburg Light and Power Co. bills net, not subject to discount, December, $2,787.61; bills net, not subject to discount, January, $3,044.59; taking the January, 1921 bills as an example, divided—light and power, $1,541.04, divided—heat, $1,503.55; when appropriation was available the above could be reduced, light and power, $1,541.04 less 10 per cent. $1,386.94; light, $1,503.55, less 5 per cent., $1,428.32, if paid on or before ten-day limit following presentation of bills, $2,815.26. Assuming that appropriation will be available to pay bill for February, 1921, estimated, $2,010.00; March, 1921, $2,800.00; April, 1921, $2,000.00, and April, 1921, $1,500.00. Note: Heat is shut off May 1, 1921.

To Harrisburg Light and Power Co., $14,932.26. To Harrisburg Gas Co., January, 1921, bill paid in amount of $153.96.

We anticipate no falling off in this amount, and for the balance of four months, or to May 31, 1921 $600.00.

Philadelphia Electric Co. bill for period ending January 17, in the amount of $114.74, or four months, $460.00, a grand total of $15,992.20. Balance of appropriation for 1919 on hand, $419.98. Estimated to cover all charges to May 1, 1921, $15,572.22. This was cut to $12,000.00.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Turning now to the last paragraph of the bill, page 18, "for the payment of the deficiency of the expense for the publication in the various newspapers of the state the several amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth for the two fiscal years ending the 31st day of May, 1921, the sum of $95,000.00." Can you explain how it was that it was $95,000.00 when it came out on first and second reading and then cut to $85,000.00 afterward?

Mr. McCAIG. I would say in answer to that question, it was impossible to estimate that amount exactly.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I do not understand you, Mr. McCaig.

Mr. McCAIG. I would say, in answer to that question, it is impossible to estimate that amount accurately.

Mr. ALEXANDER. This advertising was done last November ,was it not?

Mr. McCAIG. They agreed to accept—

Mr. ALEXANDER. Was not all this advertising done last November?

Mr. McCAIG. They agreed to accept the amount of $10,000.00 less.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I do not understand you. What I am asking you is that: As I understand all these bills were on contract and all the advertising under them was all done prior to last November. If this was done under a proper estimate, they ought to have known exactly what these bills were at the time this bill was presented in the first place.

Mr. McCAIG. These bills, as I understand, came in after the contracts were let.

Mr. ALEXANDER. They would—

Mr. McCAIG. After the contract was let.

Mr. ALEXANDER. They would know then what the contract was, wouldn't they? You have no further explanation, you know nothing about it?

Mr. McCAIG. I could not tell you what the rates were before the bills came in. I am not a printer. The newspapers printed it. Is that all, Mr. Alexander?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I will leave you off on that. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I would much rather, if it were possible, for me to vote intelligently on a bill to pay out $3,216,210.16 of the people's money of this State to know where this money was being spent, and especially by the way of a deficiency bill. If I could sit quietly in my seat and vote according to the way somebody told me to vote, there would be a great deal more pleasure and it would be very much more easier for me to do it. But I want to feel that I want to vote intelligently, and I don't feel at this time, with this meager account given to me, that these departments should expect this House, to vote without that intelligent knowledge as we are obliged under the constitution to do; that we should vote nearly three and a quarter million dollars of the people's money for expenditures in this Commonwealth without knowing where that deficiency is. This is an extraordinary deficiency such as has never been known in the history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania before. I have gone back for a number of years, even so far that it seems our of proportion; and I cannot see how any member of this House can sit idly by and not know where every dollar was spent except as it is given in this report. We have heard and gentlemen have asked me this question: "why could not one of these 155 members of this House, who are not members of the Appropriation Committee know anything about it? I do not see why they should not want to tell you what the expenses of the departments in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are, or tell you what they are doing with the people's money?" We want to know, because nobody should be held from knowing what the people's money is being spent for by the men who hold public office in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. But I do say that if this money has been spent, that it is the business for us to know what it is being spent for, and it is not the proper way for the people in charge of these departments to carry on the business of this Commonwealth. There is precedence for these things. I am not the first man who has raised his voice on this subject. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, before I proceed further I want to set at rest one thing: Through the public press, lately, there has been camouflage and in one way or another I have been charged with being the leader of a certain faction in this House. I want to assure you, sirs, that the press has given me great honor by such a charge as that, by giving me such a prominence as that, but I don't know it if I am. They have said that I have been influenced by Mr. Grundy. I have all respect for Mr. Grundy. He has ability; he is one of the greatest manufacturers in this State and he has a great business. I would consider it an honor if Mr. Grundy would ask me to talk about matters that of importance to this State or that are of benefit in this Commonwealth because his opinions are worth while. I say that not only of him, but of the Governor or any man, whoever he may be. I consider it a privilege that I should have the opportunity to learn something from those masters of industry; to know something of importance to our State. But I say this, that the business of this House should be conducted properly and not dictated by any boss.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. McCARTHY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McCarthy, will state his point of order.

Mr. McCARTHY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, is not talking on the bill before the House.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is overruled, and the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think I should be permitted, and I expect the gentleman from Philadelphia to agree with me, that I should have the privilege of stating my position and putting myself right. I wish tosay now, Mr. Speaker, that there is no collar on my neck; there is no rubber stamp in seat No. 1; I assure you of that, and there is no boss coaxing me or whispering in my ear as to how I shall vote, but I wish to vote according to my dictates of my conscience, and perform my duties here to the best of my ability, God knows. I want it understood that I am not fighting the Governor of this Commonwealth in raising these questions, or anybody else. I have always been for the Governor every time that he has been a candidate for office in this Commonwealth, and I have given him my utmost support and my best influence, although he has opposed me and the last time that I was a candidate for office I was opposed by him and I licked him, but I was not sore. The victor never has any sore spots and in this case there were no sore spots, but because I was the victor, that is not why I am opposed to him. Why should I fight with him? If I understand his own messages—If I understand them right, I am following the Governor in trying to help him in the practice of business-like economy, and I am trying to help in this House and I will read to you the last paragraph of his message delivered on January 18th in which he says:

"In conclusion I may say that while the program of suggestions and information has taken a long time in presenting our affairs are of great importance and we must give them business-like attention. I trust that the proceedings of the session may be expedited and that, as a beginning in our plan of economy and efficiency, we may be able to make the session as brief as may be possible in view of the work to be done. Everything can be disposed of in three active months, and we should be able to adjourn in the month of April. I shall be here in Harrisburg at all times to confer with you and to give you such help as I may. Let us go to our taskts with serious industry, remembering that good public service is our best political asset."

I want to ask you, is it a business-like way for you gentlemen to sit here and pass a deficiency bill, which is extraordinarily an unbusiness-like and extravagant act involving three and a quarter million dollars, without knowing how it was being spent, when the rumors have been travelling around, as they have been, and is it any more than right that these departments who are not anything more thna servants, that we as trustees should know how this money has been spent and especially when they are as extraordinary as this is. Now again, I desire to quote His Excellency, the Governor of this Commonwealth, in his annual message or in his inaugural address in 1919, found in the Legislative Journal of 1919, page 61, which is as follows:

"It was never intended that the political power of the executive should be used to control legislation or to influence or dominate political action. The exercise of such power in the State or nation is dangerous and the growth of this practice gives concern to far-seeing patriots. That it is in conflict with the underlying principles of our form of government and is subversive of the Constitution, I firmly believe. The absolute integrity and independence of the three great divisions of our governmental organization is essential in the system of checks and balances which preserve our rights and have made our constitutional administration so successful and permanent."

I read that to you because I agreed with him. He is responsible as the Executive of this State as I am responsible as a legislator, as are the responsibilities of a judicial officer is the to the judiciary. You cannot take these responsibilities from our shoulders and place them on somebody else's. And the responsibilities for the expenditures of this money in these different departments, that responsibility rests on us and us alone, and that is the reason why I have referred to that. But I again want to call your attention to his message in his inaugural addess on page 63 of the Legislative Journal of 1919: "Many of these departments overlap one another in their supposed functions, with the result that there is a lack of system and co-ordination and a duplication of effort which is extravagant and inexcusable."

I wanted to ask you, when I arose in my seat and asked these departments for an itemized statement in this extra ordinary deficiency bill that has been presented to us, requesting us to vote in favor of spending three and a quarter millions of dollars of the people's money, whether or not I am asking too much when I ask for an itemized statement of it and at least what the money is to be expended for. That is all I ask, and unless that is done, it is unbusinesslike and is not my idea of what business methods are. In 1917, his Excellency, then a Senator from the county in this State which I have the honor to represent in this House, while a State senator, presented in the Senate of this Commonwealth a resolution asking for an investigation into the departments of this Commonwealth. He charged that there were extravagances and unbusinesslike methods. I find in looking over the legislative record that he was supported in that by the Hon. Charles A. Snyder, the Auditor General, who is asking here now for a deficiency of $145,000. The senator from my county at that time charged them with being inefficient and extravagant, and he used these words to which I want you to listen: "No honest official should object to having an investigation," and I am only asking the honorable gentleman, who is the Auditor General, for an itemized statement of this $145,000 for his department in the deficiency bill. I want to call your attention to a few paragraphs that may be of interest in that connection. Mind you, I use the Auditor's department, because objection was being made at that time by the same gentleman whom I am accused of fighting at this time. If it was correct at that time, which I believe it was, why do you say I am fighting the Governor at this time or have any ulterior motive in my contest here?

In 1915, two years before the investigation was asked for, the appropriation to the Auditor General's Department was $419,000. In 1917, the time referred to when this person presented a resolution asking for an investigation, there was a change of $129,000 from the original asked by the gentleman who now asks for $145,000. As compared with 1915, which was $448,000, is it any wonder, then, that I arise at this time and question this deficiency bill, considering the extravagant figures shown here?

The Public Grounds and Buildings Department in 1917 had an appropriation of $1,241,780. In 1917 at the time this resolution was presneted in the Senate, there was a deficiency asked for by this extravagant administration of $97,720. Is it any wonder that I ask where all this money has been spent? Now let us look further: The Auditor General's Department, of which Hon. Charles A. Snyder is the Auditor General, as I see it in 1915, the appropriation was $419,000. There was a deficiency asked for amounting to $29,000, making a total for 1915 of $448,000. The appropriation for the Auditor General's Department in 1917 was $587,200. The deficiency asked for in 1917 was $102,000, making it a total expenditure by the Department in 1917, of $689,200.

In 1919 we appropriated to the Auditor General's Department, $915,200. This gentleman complained at the time about the extravagance of this department in 1915, four years prior, yet in 1915 the appropriation was $448,000, and in 1919, $915,200. Now, he did ask in his original bill $145,000, making a total of $1,060,200, as against a total amount of this other extravagant figure in 1915 of $448,000. Is it any wonder that I am asking for this? I am asking in all fairness for what they have spent this money, and if they have spent it in a businesslike way and in the right way of doing business. After appropriating to them so much money they have not any right to go to the extent that they have gone in their deficiencies. There is no legal right given to any of these departments to go into these deficiencies, and I ask them to-day to file an itemized statement of what they are. Let us take up the Department of Public Grounds and Buildings: In 1917 there was appropriated to the Department of Public Grounds and Buildings, $1,241,780. The deficiency asked for in 1917 was $77,000. We appropriated in 1919 $2,349,053.90 as against $1,241 780.00 in 1917. Again, take the first item in that department for the payment of the deficiency, an appropriation for salaries of the chief assistant and engineers in the power plant and other employees for making repairs necessary, the sum of $30,000. Mind you, when that item came out in the first instance as reported from the Appropriations Committee it was without any change and passed second reading. There was a request made to send it back for a hearing. Instead of sending it back for a hearing, they clipped $341,000, a mere bagatelle. However, they did put over a deficiency bill of $1,354,160.06.

I don't want the heads of departments to go down in their pockets and pay this large sum of money, and if they had been right in the first instance they should have stuck to it. I don't mean to say anything against my friend from Allegheny, Mr. McCaig, but you will remember when this bill was reported out on the first night of our session, after coming back on the 17th of January, for some reason or another, unanimous consent was asked to read it for the first time. It was read the first time and the next day, came up on second reading. I saw this deficiency and we next started to ask questions, and then it was referred back as we anticipated, for a hearing, but it was clipped of $341,000 and it was again passed and sent over. I thought it was in committee, but they passed it on third reading. I sat here looking at them. Immediately after that it was passed, when word had been passed out that the bill had been passed, and then on the next Monday following I came in with a resolution to bring it back from committee, but they beat me to it. I didn't care who brought it back, so it came back and had a fair hearing. Then it has a hearing for the first time and $22,000 was chopped off from it again. Now, I am told by the Chairman, that this department says that that extra $22,000 was for employes who had not been working on the job.

Is it any wonder that I ask for a statement so that the people of this State may know how their money is being spent? Remember, the Governor was a man of experience who had served many terms in the Senate and now insists that every one of these departments shall have their deficiency bill put through and they come in and ask for this deficiency notwithstanding all the arguments advanced against it. When I raise my voice only asking for an accounting, request that a statement be filed showing what this money is being spent for, they say I am fighting the Governor, when the Governor himself said $450,000 was sufficient.

We will take the other item for the payment of a deficiency appropriation up to the next of June for supplies, including stationery supplies, repairs, alterations and improvements and other matters required by the Legislature in the several departments, boards, commissions, etc., of the State government and executive commissions as set forth, including all the general annual schedule of supplies for the State government, the sum of $700,092.06. Somebody had taken a great deal of pains evidently in preparing that appropriation, carrying it out to "cents." When I raise my voice and ask for an itemized statement, I am charged again with fighting the Governor. The Governor knew what he was doing then, and is it not proper that the people of this Commonwealth should know when deficiencies are as great as these are, when they are so extraordinary as these are, that the people should know exactly where this money is being spent? The next item in this deficiency required in the original deficiency on Public Grounds and Buildings is $525,788.02. I don't care how you read that, you cannot interpret it but one way. If you go back and trace that paragraph the fact is that the funds should be used especially for a certain purpose, and that the appropriation of $150,000 is included in that deficiency of $525,000. Then when I raise my question and ask these departments to file an itemized statement to show where this money is spent, I am charged with fighting somebody or something. I want to know before I vote for any such spending of three and a quarter millions of dollars of the people's money, what it is being spent for, and I want you to see how it was spent. The next item is one of a $45,000 deficiency appropriation for the payment of supplies. This phrascology of the last item seems to be changed. Nobody seemed to care. The department didn't care what phraseology they put in, but just saw to it that the dollars and cents were put in there as they were. This same argument may be used through this whole bill. The Deficiency Bill in almost all the instances is subject to the same argument. Why is it that we cannot have and why should we not have before this bill passes an itemized statement? Why should we not have such a statement showing this account?

On the other hand, there has been brought to my knowledge and attention—it was in the papers here in this town—that there are two private buildings being rented to the Department of Public Grounds and Buildings, and one of these buildings is known as the Ensminger Building and the other one as the Claster Building. A gentleman from West Chester, the assistant librarian of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, has that lease, or leased it to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I don't know whether that is true or not, but that is the information that we have received. I understand that both of these buildings are being remodeled at great expense to the Commonwealth and I don't know what it is, but we have a right to know. You have heard what Mr. McCaig said as far as the Claster Building is concerned, the rental rate is $48,000 a year for a period of ten years, and at the end of that time both of these buildings are to be turned back to the lessors, as they are with all the improvements that have been made by the Commonwealth. We have a right to see those agreements and to know that they are proper. We have a right, every man of this House has that right. I, for myself, believe that it is my sworn duty as trustee to ask these men who are no more than servants of this Commonwealth, to show us just how this money has been spent. I want you to understand plainly that I am not endeavoring to block any payments; that is not my purpose. It is my purpose as a member of this House to help every department of this Commonwealth to the best of my ability. I am proud of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and no man in this House desires more to see the business of this Commonwealth carried on in a business-like manner. I would like to look on this State with pride and know that economy was being practiced in every department. I want to look with pride upon this Commonwealth and to tell our sister states that which is being done here. I do not think it is fair to us for these people to ask us to pass this appropriation bill before we know how that money has been expended. I will say to you that there is no man in this House who will go further to help these departments than I will in every possible way, by legislation or in any other way, but I think it is due to us that these departments give us an itemized statement of how this money was spent, and I desire to offer a motion. I move that further action on House Bill No. 1, File Folio 473, be postponed until each member of the House of Representatives be furnished with an itemized statement from each of the departments mentioned in said bill, showing the expenditures of the respective departments from May 31st, 1919, to date.

Mr. MANTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise with a confession on my lips. I confess that my heart was tripping like a trip hammer, not with fear, but with emotion. I would that I could get up and shout at the top of my voice, "the Commonwealth is saved! The Commonwealth is saved!" That all history to the contrary notwithstanding, Alexander seeks no new worlds to conquer. Mr. Speaker, years ago a literary genius was inspired and he wrote the Pilgrims Progress, and the opening lines as I remember read "Ah, I fear and I tremble for my fellow men." Because in the opening of the session I read in the newspapers that the gentleman from Delaware was going to fight the Governor and the administration, I too feared and trembled for our great Commonwealth. Oh, I can imagine the nights that the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth spent in his den, walking up and down and tearing his hair, worrying because the gentleman from Delaware was going to fight his administration. Ah! but that is gone and the compensation that must come tonight when the news is carried back that the gentleman from Delaware, the newspapers to the contrary notwithstanding, is not fighting the administration, is not fighting the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth. Ah! the contented, peaceful slumber.

The gentleman from Delaware has said were it not for his interrogations tonight the one hundred and fifty-five members of the House who were not on the Appropriations Committee would not know whereof he spoke, and the answer that came. I sat here tonight and listened attentively, most attentively to the dialogue between the gentleman from Delaware and the gentleman from Allegheny, and it seems to me, with due respect to both the gentlemen and I hold them both in high esteem, it seems that it was more or less of a catechism that the gentleman from Delaware was putting to the gentleman from Allegheny. A catechism of figures. I listened and I failed to discover there anything which would excite me, anything which would cause any fear in my heart, anything which would lead me to suspect that the great Commonwealth was not as safe as heretofore, and I thought perhaps there was merit in the interrogation by the gentleman from Delaware. There may have been, and for that reason, Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware along the same lines he interrogated the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware as I understand introduced a bill in this session of the Legislature asking for a deficiency appropriation to the Pennsylvania Training School for Feeble Minded Children at Elwyn, Pa. Is that a fact?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Yes, sir.

Mr. GOLDER. For what amount?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I cannot tell you, but may it please the Speaker, it is that a number of children of friends from Philadelphia may be taken care of at the Elwyn Training School for feeble minded children, and for that reason we are obliged to pay certain sums of money for the keeping of children sent from Philadelphia.

Mr. GOLDER. The answer is interesting. Why should the people of Philadelphia go to Delaware County to seek assistance for their own? Does the gentleman know the answer to the question I have asked him?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I do not know—

Mr. GOLDER. I would like to ask if the gentleman knows that he asked for $85,900.47,—again the question of pennies showing the exactness of some people appears. I desire to ask the gentleman from Delaware whether he knows how that amount is made up?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I would like to say Mr. Speaker, that there is an itemized statement—if the gentleman will just bear with me, I will have it here. Current expenses ending for the year ending June 1, 1920, $360,806.17; average number of inmates for the year 943, making a per capita cost of $386.41; current expenses for the three quarters ending March 1—the month of February approximated—$284,729.81; average number of inmates 911, making a per capita cost for the three quarters of $312.54, or approximately for a full year, $416.72; average per capita for the term, $401.71. From this there is a deduction allowed by the State for clothes, farm produce, and extra maintenance which is paid by the people who sent them there, a total of $20,852.98, which reduces the per capita cost $378.82.

Mr. GOLDER. Can the gentleman from Delaware inform the House how much for produce, how much for rent, how much for extra help and the other things which he has in the bill?

Mr. ALEXANDER. The produce I spoke of is raised on the farm at Elwyn. They allow a credit to the City of Philadelphia and other places where the charity is given, they allow a credit for that produce that is raised on the farm.

Mr. GOLDER. Can the gentleman from Delaware answer my question?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I did answer it.

Mr. GOLDER. If the gentleman from Delaware in his fastidious manner is satisfied that he has given us in detail the many things I have asked for, and which he in turn has asked from the gentleman from Allegheny, then I am satisfied. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Wait a minute, wait a minute. Mr. Speaker, of course this far afield—

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker the floor is mine.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware has the floor.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker this is far afield, but I am not afraid to answer anything, and I will say to the gentleman that I have already said to Mr. McCaig, that as soon as he wants to see the books of this charitable institution, they will be brought here, an itemized statement will be brought here. The board of charities has already gone over them and Mr. McCaig is satisfied with that examination.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I am not questioning the good faith of the gentleman presenting the bill in question. I am not questioning the good faith of the gentleman from Delaware in propounding the questions to the chairman of the Appropriations Committee along lines which he himself in his own practice in this House has not carried out, and I would ask the gentleman from Delaware whether since this bill was introduced here more than two months ago he has made any effort to interrogate the head of any of the departments for any information which he seeks to know. I will ask him whether he has ever asked the Auditor General, the State Treasurer, or the head of any Department in this Commonwealth that their books might be shown to him as he states he offered to the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee to show his book. Gentlemen let us stop and consider, and I am asking your indulgence for a few moments while I trespass on your time.

We are now entering the third month of this session and it appears that we are as a ship at sea without a rudder, floating here and there. Let us take our bearings; let us look at the compass and see where we are. Two months of aimless floating about, just considering the deficiency bill—men and women are working for the Commonwealth and there is no pay; there are contracts made by this great Commonwealth, of which my friend is so proud, and no money to meet them; leases prepared and no money to pay, and the gentleman rises to give us an autobiography of his political history, his hopes and ambition, and his friends and enemies. There is a big issue here tonight. If this is a question of factionalism I know it not. I hold no brief for the Governor of this Commonwealth. As a matter of fact, during my six years, I have met the gentleman twice. Once as a member of a committee I entered the Executive Chamber and once on a social occasion I met him. I dare say if I met the Governor today he would hardly know me. I hold no brief for the resolution he introduced here two years ago except to say that in that case whether right or wrong the Governor had the courage that he doubted the efficiency of an administration, and for that reason asked for an investigation. What we do have tonight—a request from the gentleman, a motion by the gentleman from Delaware that we withhold all action until every member of this House be given something which he could have had any day of the session if he were interested in the good of the government by going to His Excellency the Governor, or the head of any department. If there is any man in this House who has gone to the head of any department of this Commonwealth and has asked for an itemized statement, then I am willing to listen to what he says, but when a man rises, who has been here two months and makes no attempt to get the information which he seeks to know, then I say he has acted in bad faith. Men, we have a lot of work to do. I assume we have, because we have done nothing to date, and we have been elected to come here and work. I confess that a great deal of the information I got about the work of this House, I got from the newspapers, usually before we did it. It seems there are only a half a dozen men in this Commonwealth ,and two hundred seven members of the House come here and two or three days afterwards the newspapers tell us what we are supposed to do, and we do it. I believe in leadership, I believe in big men, and I believe that it is only by concerted action that we can get anywhere. Men, we are here; let us do things; let us stop quarreling about petty little things and meet the issue here. The bill goes to the Senate. It will probably remain there for a short while, a week at least, and any man of this House who desires any information—and I speak without authority, but speak in absolute good faith and sure I will be backed up—that if he will go to the head of any department and will seek any information, the head of that department will give it to him. The greatest Commonwealth of the country, men elected by the greatest electoral vote of any state, His Excellency, the Governor, the Auditor General and State Treasurer, elected by close to half a million votes, each doing his duty in good faith, and doing it well, suddenly held up to ridicule so that the rest of the country might see the members of the House wait two months for information which they could get in a day—set up as a spectacle, the Auditor General, the State Treasurer and the Secretary of the Commonwealth, holding them up to ridicule and saying, "What have you done with the money?" Shades of Brumbaugh! Men, this is a disgrace. I take the same attitude that I did four years ago. We have elected men to office; they have taken their oath and have done their work well. Let us do our work just as well, for he who lives in a glass house should undress in the dark.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware has told us that he is not in opposition to our Chief Executive. If he is not why does he tell us through such a great length of time and he expects us to believe it. Why does he roll it about in his mouth like a succulent morsel and every once in a while bring it to his lips so that we can see the love which he bears to the Chief Executive of this great Commonwealth whom he licked. He reminds me in his lack of courtesy and tact of the story that is told of a colored regiment in France whose Colonel told them that in their treatment of the people they should use courtesy and tact. One of the colored boys went back to his pup tent and said that he did not quite understand what the Colonel meant by courtesy and tact, but he thought it was something like this: "Before the war I was a plumber and four or five blocks from me there was a white lady who always gave me all her plumbing. One morning early the telephone bell rang and this kind lady told me to bring my tools over at once for her bathtub was leaking. I ran to her place and went to the back gate and I climbed up the back stairs and I rested right in at the door. There was the lady in the bathtub taking a bath, so I said to her, "good morning, sir," the good morning was courtesy and the sir was tact."

The gentleman from Delaware has apparently gone far afield in his notions of courtesy and tact when he addresses the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth in the delightful way that he has addressed him this evening. He has told us of the Governor's message of 1921 and he has referred us to his inaugural address of 1919. He has referred also to the debate in the Senate when Governor Sproul, then Senator from Delaware, introduced a resolution to investigate Governor Brumbaugh. But gentlemen, I submit to you that every one of the arguments which he has produced from the records as we have them of the Governor's remarks are totally irrelevant and have nothing to do with the bill that is before us tonight. Furthermore we do not have before us at this time a bill to investigate the Governor or to investigate the Chiefs of Departments or the Elective Officers who have charge of the several departments of this Commonwealth. We have no such bill before us and if, as the gentleman from Philadelphia my colleague, Mr. Golder, has just said, the gentleman from Delaware was absolutely four-square he could have gone to these men all of whom are courteous and willing to do what is right and all of whom to date have done what is right and I challenge the gentleman from Delaware or any other man in this House to lay his finger on a certain act and say that that act has been crooked. The laws of this State are severe and we are in a place where we know the danger of doing in an official office that which may be investigated. It is true that this is the most beautiful capitol building in the world but look at the wreck and ruin of lives that followed its construction some years ago, and does the gentleman from Delaware again wish to bring up similar shame and scandal because forsooth we are now erecting that which the Commonwealth has for some years needed, new buildings to house the departments of the State. Reference is made to the Claster Building and to the repairs which are needed. The gentleman is one of the leading lawyers, I understand, in the County of Delaware. Surely he is as well acquainted as the other members of the bar of this State with the fact that when the buildings are completed the leases can be cancelled instanter and no liability rests or is vested as the result of that cancellation. It is an act of the sovereign and cannot be questioned. And if these repairs are made at this time when housing space is so much needed should we not pay a little extra for it so that we can get our departments working, co-ordinating, and the work of this great Commonwealth started. He refers again and again to the Executive mansion. May I be permitted to trespass on your time and speak my own thoughts. In my mind the Executive mansion of Pennsylvania is a disgrace as a building to this great State, and the quicker we tear that old ramshackle down which is a disgrace architecturally and build something in keeping with this great Commonwealth, the quicker we will have accomplished one more duty to our Commonwealth. He attacks the Executive mansion, and that which is provided in it, and yet, gentlemen, if you will read the items in the bill referring to the Executive mansion you will find that they do not stand alone but that they are in conjunction with other items in connection with the Department of Grounds and Buildings. If the gentleman thinks Honest Tom Templeton is a crook, why don't he file information against him and prove it? What is the use of coming in here like that old character of Shakespeare Iago. Here is Tom Templeton's department. I like not that; here is Charlie Snyder's department; I like not that because he wears a carnation as a buttonier; and here is Harmon Kephart, the State Treasurer; I like not that, because, forsooth, Harmon is too fat. So that his remarks, when you divest them of the clothing put upon them show you not that they cover a human form but merely a skeleton. He asked for a postponement. This bill has been before us from the early days of this session; he has had ample opportunity to bring before this House those facts which he seeks in that resolution,—and did you notice the resolution; that each one of us shall be deluged with a great crop of figures; I do not know how many of us are bookkeepers or accountants. For myself, I can only say that I am a miserable one, and I am perfectly frank in saying that I would not really read it, because I would get muddled up as I do in my income tax report—just about as easy. The gentleman proceeds to believe that if we all received this great detailed statement or account that we would then be in the class with Solon and so wise that we could determine forthwith the exigencies and the needs of this great Commonwealth. He lays great stress upon the fact that the bill has been amended. It has been amended, and for an awfully good reason. Not only the reasons which the chairman of this committee has assigned, to wit, the clipping down or the cutting of appropriations, but more, when this bill was introduced by error of head, not of heart, it was thought it was necessary to provide a deficiency appropriation for six months, whereas the fact is that a deficiency appropriation covers only five months and the clipping was necessary for that extra month at once, and that helped to bring it down. Instead of figuring on a six months' deficiency, it became necessary to figure on a five months' deficiency. So you read the bill and you find that my friend from Delaware attacks that which we worked in the last session so hard to put through and which, thank God, was passed, namely, the teachers retirement bill. We want our children educated. I am reminded of a story told of the times when Rome was great. Caesar stood in one of the gateways surrounded by the Senate, and before him passed the soldiers of the old wars, and as they passed, they tore open their jackets and they showed marks of the old wounds. They carried a banner on which was written these words, "We were brave." After them followed the triumphant general just returned with his great legion upon legion upon legion of men, back from the front; and as they passed Caesar they pulled open their jackets and they showed their recent wounds, and they carried a banner upon which was written these words, "We are brave." Then following them came thousands upon thousands upon thousands of the school children of Rome, and as they passed their mighty chief they could not show any wounds and they passed in their bare feet and in their white clothes silently, but carried a banner on which was written these words, "We will be brave"; and as they passed Caesar turned to the Senate and said, "The past is gone, and the present is past, and only to these schoolboys of Rome must Rome look for her future greatness." So we in the last session passed that bill which we in Pennsylvania must depend upon for our greatness, our boys and our girls in school, our future children, and so it develops that in that department there is a deficiency and because perchance some of the teachers do not wear the right kind of hats to suit the gentleman from Delaware, he says like Iago, "I like not that," and he attacks that among others. Gentlemen, I want to say to you examine this deficiency bill. It does not mean that all the money has already been spent; it provides for vouchers and a cross system of accounts, and it provides for more than that, it provides that only those items shall be expended that need to be expended, not the whole amount but so much thereof as shall be necessary.

Gentlemen, let us defeat the motion to postpone. Let us put this deficiency bill over, and then if the gentleman finds crookedness in any of the departments of this government, he has a right to put in an investigation bill, he has the right even to impeach, he has the right further, if he wishes, to go into the courts of law of this Commonwealth to swear out a warrant for all of his enemies whom he has mentioned by inference tonight.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, it was not my purpose to say anything on this bill but after the very lengthy interrogation by the gentleman from Delaware of the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, it only behooves me to try as far as possible to defend the Chairman of that important committee. I have been here since 1913 and in that time never have I heard the Chairman of an Appropriation Committee so gruelly questioned in regard to items as I have heard tonight by the gentleman from Delaware. Any member of the Appropriation Committee who has consulted with him and worked with him during the work on this deficiency bill will know that he has been honest, will know that he has been fair, will know that he has looked after every interest of this Commonwealth, so that he knows that not one penny of it will be wasted or squandered by the heads of the Departments of this great Commonwealth. We have had this deficiency bill before us before and fifty-one members of this House selected by the Speaker have passed on it. If you do not place confidence in the work of that Committee why do you not put in a resolution discharging the Committee from any future work in regard to the consideration of appropriation bills coming before the House?

The Appropriation Committee of the House and also of the Senate have conferred with the Governor of this great Commonwealth and they had called into them the heads of the various departments and told them to cut down their deficiency to the very lowest possible amount, and then when the bill came in after going over these items with the heads of the departments, with certain items cut out from what was supposed to be the first deficiency bill to be presented to this House then there was a resolution sent to the committee calling for itemized statements. The statements were presented and every item was taken into consideration. We placed all confidence in the Chairman of that committee and on each item every time we asked the same question and it was answered by him that the deficiency asked for by that department met the deficiency in the itemized account from the various departments. Tonight when you vote on it I ask you in all honesty to place confidence in the fifty-one men on the Appropriations Committee who will see to it that not a dollar will be appropriated without knowing that that dollar is going to be spent for the benefit of this great Commonwealth. As to the Chief Executive, which my friend from Delaware Mr. Alexander says he is not fighting, but which he announced on this floor he licked, let us stand behind the Executive as we have stood behind him during the past two years.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that each and every member of this House is thoroughly acquainted with the bill that is before us at this time and therefore Mr. Speaker, I call for the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following: Messrs. J. R. Craig, Dunn, Edmonds, Evans, Franklin, Glass, Golder, Goodnough, Harer, Harry, Heffernan, Hess, David J. Jones, Long, Joseph Marcus, David I. Miller, Ruth, Trainer, James A. Walker and Zook, and others.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question,

On the question,

Shall the main question be put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker I move that the resolution be laid on the table.

The SPEAKER. The previous question having been called for, that is the only motion before the House.

The Chair will state that this motion is tantamount to a motion to indefinitely postpone. In other words, if the motion carries it defeats the bill and the Chair so rules.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I am going up take up only a few minutes—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order. Nothing is in order but the calling of the roll.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I understand the bill on final passage is Senate Bill No. 202?.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, for the appropriation of money for additional land at Washington Park?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is not correct.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator what the purpose of the bill is?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the purpose of the bill is to amend the original act and authorize the condemnation of land at that point for park purposes by extending the number of acres from one hundred to five hundred acres. The situation is such at that point that the Commission has acquired almost one hundred acres and to acquire a little bit additional land the number of acres, amounting to about forty acres at this time, would take them above their one hundred acre limit, and the only amendment to this bill is the raising of the amount from one hundred to five hundred acres. I do not know how many acres they have at Valley Forge, but my impression is that they run above the thousand acres, about twelve hundred, and we have at this time about sixty-five acres at Washington's Crossing, and we desire to acquire an additional forty acres, which includes the spot where the Revolutionary soldiers are buried on the banks of the Delaware, and also includes the island on the Delaware where Washington hid his boats prior to crossing the Delaware on that memorable occasion.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks whether it is not the intention of the Commission to increase the amount at this time from one hundred to five hundred, and that the amount to be increased is only forty?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is correct at this time. It takes money to buy land the same as to buy other things, and we cannot buy land without money. We are going ahead in a very moderate and modest way down there, as we try to do all things in that locality, and we do not think that we are a bit extravagant or excessive.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, my purpose in interrogating the Senator from Bucks was that it seemed to be the consensus of opinion of both the legislative and executive departments that we were running short of money and the thought struck me, and I make the interrogation with all the courtesy in the world toward the Senator from Bucks, whether or not it was not a good time to economize, and whether or not this matter could not be put off until such time as the State of Pennsylvania would have the additional money.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would say to the Senator from Allegheny that there is no direction in this act, it is simply an enabling act. If we would have been as wise at the time we introduced the original bill as we have become in the light of experience we should have inserted five hundred acres instead of one hundred acres in the original bill and this bill would not have been necessary. There is no thought of going ahead and being extravagant. We are not that kind of people.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, that is all. Thank you.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Chair wishes to state at this time that in the reference of bills he sometimes refers a bill to a committee which he thinks should consider that bill and if the bill carries an appropriation, it should, after consideration by the first committee to be referred to the Committee on Appropriations, or if necessary to some other committee. There is no objection to a re-reference of bills from one committee to another where the chairmen feel that they have acted on the bill and that it should be acted on by another committee. The Chair will again state that all bills carrying an appropriation when referred to a committee other than the Appropriation Committee must find their way sooner or later to the Appropriation Committee for consideration by that committee.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a question of personal privilege for the purpose of making an announcement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: About a week ago, before we went on our recess, the announcement was made that the Legislative Sons of St. Patrick would hold their bi-ennial dinner here in Harrisburg on Wednesday, March 16th. For several sessions I have been personally identified with this dinner and great disappointment has been caused many members of the House and Senate by reason of the fact that they did not put in their applications for tickets in advance. These are all the tickets I have and I will say to the members who want them that they had better get them today because I will not be responsible for any disappointments. I would ask you now, gentlemen, to take this to heart and not hold me responsible on the night of the affair if you are not able to get tickets. Therefore I would advise you to come now and get tickets or after the session is over.

SPEAKER SPANGLER IN THE CHAIR.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a quesion of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, a few moments ago while walking in the back of the House I discovered in one of its corners sitting in a most retired, modest and characteristic manner one of the jewels of the Commonwealth, a man who instead of sitting in the back of the Hall should be in front on the great painting, one of Pennsylvania's foremost citizens, a man who is a philanthophist, a man who founded one of the great universities of our Commonwealth, a man who has devoted his entire life to giving to the poor boy and the poor girl of Pennsylvania a chance to educate themselves, a man who has sacrificed everything from the first day in the interest of all humanity, and I saw sitting there Pennsylvania's foremost soldier, statesman, citizen and student, and it gives me great pleasure to have the privilege to call upon Dr. Russell H. Conwell to address the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to second the splendid sentiments expressed by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Golder, in introducing our most distinguished citizen, of whom we are highly proud. Dr. Russell H. Conwell.

ADDRESS BY DR. RUSSELL H. CONWELL.

Dr. RUSSELL H. CONWELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House this is a very embarrassing situation for me. I do not know that I have been so embarassed since I made my first speech about sixty-five years ago, or seventy, when I could not think of anything but "Give me Liberty or give me Death," and I said that. I feel very much like that at this moment. I feel it a great honor, however, and one that touches me very deeply in my years to have you greet me in this cordial way. It is an encouragement to go on with the years that may be left trying to take care of the poor boys of the State and giving them an opportunity which has been open hitherto only to the sons of the rich, but I know it would be a very inappropriate thing for me to say anything about Temple University or its needs, and take advantage of such a greeting as this, but of course my heart is in the attempt to give every poor boy or girl in the State an opportunity to get the highest education if they are willing to work part of the time to earn their own living. The time is coming now when the State of Pennsylvania will probably be in the lead in that democratic, that free distribution of the liberties of education. We are going to be a leading state in that. I might suggest to you gentlemen, as I look upon it from the outside, watching all your movements and all your votes and everything, I might suggest to you that the common schools of our State, the common school system, is the very best investment perhaps that you can make of your money, not only because of the wider intelligence and greater happiness of the people, but because of the returns to the State in money. It is a good investment in money to take care of your common school system because they will earn so much more than they would earn if they would not have that education, and that becomes taxable property in the State. I commend it to the members of the House who have been in favor of putting a more practical education in the way of the common school system. I think that when a person is far enough advanced as a child to enter high school he should have been instructed in the day school in practical things so that he is better able to earn his living. I do not mean to teach less culture or less literature but to teach in our common school something more useful so that when a scholar gets through our common schools he can go out and earn more money than he could if he had not been to school. We have been so afraid to say anyhting about the almighty dollar that we have not encouraged the students in our common school system to earn more money. That is the only suggestion I am glad I have the opportuniy to make as an outsider, because it is all in your hands and you understand it better than I do, but the common school system should return to the State in the earning power of its graduates a great deal more than the State invests in them. It is a great business proposition and is a paying one to the State, and the right kinds of education given anywhere will produce the double result of making a man happier, making him wiser and making him able to earn more money. I thank you very much for your kindness. (Applause.)

The SPEAKER. The Chair in the name of the House of Representatives wishes to thank Dr. Conwell for his very excellent remarks. We always appréciate having him with us.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will declare a recess until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O eternal and everlasting Jehovah, we are glad to call Thee "God" and to acknowledge Thy mightiness; to call Thee "Lord" and confess Thy sovereignty; but we rejoice above all things to call Thee "Father" and receive Thy love.

Take all humanity into Thy tender embrace, we beseech Thee. Be Thou the lighter of the lamp of balm in the sick room. Strengthen Thou the hand of those that are weary and heart-sore. Be Thou the defender of those who are oppressed; the vindicator of the innocent, and the shepherd of those who are marching through the "valley of the shadow of death."

And at last grant unto us a happy release from this world, and may we all be able to say, "Our Father," not only "which art in Heaven," but "who art Heaven itself." Amen.

RESOLUTION.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION FIXING DATE FOR FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WHITAKER offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 2, 1921.

Resolved, (If the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one do adjourn sine die on April 28th, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one at twelve o'clock noon.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, the business of this House is now advanced so far that I believe all of us can see that it will be possible to act on all the important legislation that will come before us by April 28th. It is about an average time for the adjournment of the Legislature. Within the past ten years five of the sessions have adjourned at an earlier date than that and apparently the work is so well advanced and so well in hand at this time that I believe it is the opinion of most members that the business of importance can be easily concluded at that time. The resolution of this House which has already been adopted precludes the introduction of bills after April 7th, and this date of adjournment will furnish ample time after April 7th to pass all the bills that are introduced before that date.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 2nd, 1921.

Resolved, (If the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns to-day it reconvene on Monday evening, March seventh, at nine o"clock; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday evening, March seventh, at nine o'clock.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Yes sir.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether these amendments meet with the approval of the authorities of the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. STADTLANDER. I understand so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TRAINER. May I inquire further, Mr. Speaker, if the information is qualified that he understands? Could I not ask him to make it more specific?

Mr. STADTLANDER. I do not know what the gentleman refers to.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, so that my position on this bill may be thoroughly understood, I will ask your indulgence for a few moments to give you the history——

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia understands that the gentleman from Allegheny is asking unanimous consent and must obtain it before the amendments can adopt it. The Chair was just about to ask whether the House would give unanimous consent for the adoption of these amendments.

Mr. TRAINER. My purpose, Mr. Speaker, was to find out the object of the amendments, that is all I want.

Two weeks ago in the Municipal Corporations Committee the suggestion was made to amend this bill just as it is being amended now, and when I made the suggestion I was accused of guerilla warfare. After a period of two weeks the light of reason has suddenly broken through, and there is hope for us in Philadelphia. I wish to say without taking up a lot of your time that I indulge the hope that reason may yet break through the wall of obsession, mayorality obsession and the City of Philadelphia will begin to function away from ambitions. This is a good step, and I hail it with delight. If this amendment meets with the approval of the City Solicitor of Philadelphia we have begun to make progress, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr Speaker, I resent the remarks made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer. I did not accuse the gentleman of guerilla warfare, and I challenge him on the floor of the House to state that I did so accuse him.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. Speaker, it was not my intention when speaking to say that the Chairman of the Municipal Corporations Committee made that remark. So that the remarks may be plainly identified the President of Council of Philadelphia made that remark and not the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, no such remark as that was made. What was said in that committee was that my friend, Mr. Trainer, my colleague from Philadelphia, had waited long, long, long with his suggestions, and of course he has waited long. That is all there was.

Mr. GREEN. Mr. Speaker, I was present at that meeting, and the gentleman was accused of guerilla warfare by the President of Council, Mr. Weglein, and trying to impede the progress of Philadelphia. I am pleased that he has seen the light.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. GLASS. My point of order is that there is nothing before the House but the obtaining of unanimous consent.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's point of order is well taken.

Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

On the morrow, O God, there shall pass from the place of prominence the Chief Executive of this nation, and take with him into retirement a broken body as a constant reminder of unremitting toil. Grant unto him in these days that shall come, peace and quietness and much satisfaction of mind; and though we shall change from one executive to another, we would ask Thee to be still the abiding presence and go with him who will take upon his shoulders the onerous toils that await him. Grant unto him wisdom and counsel from on high, and give unto him all the knowledge of a Joseph and a Solomon combined, that in these trying days when expectant hearts are looking for so much, he shall fully meet everyone's desire where it is right and true. Grant unto him Thy blessing, and may there be a far-flung battleline of bended knees that shall not only give unto him the allegiance that he is entitled to, but the unqaulified support in everything that he shall undertake for the blessing and welfare of this people. Amen.

O Thou Great Jehovah we lift up to Thee our voices in praise and thanksgiving for the manifold blessings which come from Thy bountiful hand. On all sides we see evidences of decay, but we thank Thee that in the life of our great Republic, which is builded upon Democracy, we see no evidences of decay, but we see her today firmer and stronger than ever, and we pray Thy blessing upon our new government that the freedom and safety and stability of our Nation shall be preserved. Help us to realize that many things we say here shall be forgotten, but the things that we do shall be everlasting monuments long after we have gone home to God. Hear us for Thy sake. Amen.

Thous hast dowered us with all the good gifts—all of the treasures of the mines and the wealth of the fields and the riches of the sea; but above all, Thou hast given us at every crucial hour in the history of our people, towering geniuses of intellect and heart, who have lead us, aright in every great storm and stress.

We beseech Thee that Thou wilt continue to show such favor unto us, and in all of the vicissitudes of time and all of the conditions that shall overtake us, let us never fail for the heart and the head that shall lead us aright through all the devious ways and all of the trying conditions that may overtake us. And bless Thou us, one and all, and help us to play our part as men, each one doing in his place that which is proper in Thy sight, and for the good of this land. Amen.

Whereas, Large sums of money were loaned by the Government of the United States to the British Government and to the governments of other nations allied with her in the World War; and
Whereas, It has been proposed to forgive and cancel all such debts to the respective governments; and
Whereas, Such moneys should properly be applied to the payment of a bonus to the men and women whose loyalty and patriotism in the military and naval service of the United States brought about the splendid victory in the World War; and
Whereas, If said debts are forgiven and cancelled, heavy burdens of taxation must be placed on the people of this Nation in order to pay such bonus; now therefore Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that it is unalterably opposed to the forgiving and cancellation of such debts to the various governments; and that it urges upon the high officers of the Nation the necessity of insisting on the payment of such debts and the application of the proceeds thereof to the payment of a bonus to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the World War.

WILLIAM C. SPROUL.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 250.

Mr. SCHAEFFER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 250, file folio 720, entitled

An Act requiring the filing of plans and specifications for buildings public works highways or improvement undertaken by boroughs townships poor districts or school districts in the office of the clerk of the court of quarters sessions and requiring copies to be furnished by the secretary architect or engineer of the municipality to applicants therefor was defeated on final passage, be reconsidered.

Mr. FRANK B. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Chair declared "The ayes appear to have it."

Whereupon, a division was called for, and seventy-two gentleman voting in the affirmative and twenty-five in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. W. W. Jones, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know, does this bill provide that every borough, township and school district making a contract for a public improvement which involves an expenditure of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) shall file in the office of the Clerk of Quarter Sessions of the proper county, a copy of the plans and specifications?

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, it does in a sum of ten thousand dollars or over.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, does the bill provide that every bidder who desires a copy of the plans and specifications may have the same by making a request for it?

Mr. W. W. JONES. He can get it, yes, sir. The idea is to put every bidder on the same footing and to give every bidder a square deal.

Mr. McVICAR. Does this bill provide that every contract made where the provisions of this bill are not adhered to, is invalidated?

Mr. W. W. JONES. Most assuredly.

Mr. McVICAR. Will you please explain the purpose of the bill?

Mr. W. W. JONES. The purpose of the bill is this: In a great many communities we find two specifications and plans. One set for one series calls for a sewer job for an average dig of twenty-one feet, which is the average. Another one of eleven feet on that job, and he is a favored bidder. This is to prevent that; that every contractor is given a square deal. The object of the bill is to give the people of the borough a square deal for their money.

Mr. McVICAR. Is there any law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the present time that requires any city or any borough or any township or school district to file plans and specifications other than with the proper officer of the city or borough or school district?

Mr. W. W. JONES. Not that I know of at the present time.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill, as you will observe by the interrogation, is a bill that provides that where any municipality makes a contract involving the expenditure of ten thousand dollars or more, that a copy of the plans and specifications shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, and that every person desiring a copy of these plans or specifications, whether he is a bidder or not, shall be entitled to a copy of the same, and which renders any contract in violation of the provisions of this bill invalid.

At the present time the practice has been and the law is, that plans and specifications must be on file in the proper office of the city, borough, township or school district. Why should there be any change in the law? Why should boroughs or townships or school districts be required to go to to a county seat and file in the county office away from their locality a copy of the plans and specifications? Why should they bear the expense following? There is only one answer: In some, probably a few boroughs in this Commonwealth, there are officers who have been dishonest, and they have had two plans or two sets of specifications, but I submit to you that other municipalities of this Commonwealth should not suffer because some few have been misrepresented by its people or those people have been so negligent in the selection of their officers and such a condition has existed. If Mr. Jones wants to correct a mischief which occurs in certain boroughs, let him present and put through an act of assembly making it a high penal offense for any officer to commit such an act, but do not require of these districts to undergo an expense which is not necessary in boroughs which are properly regulated, which is the fact in a great majority of the municipalities of the Commonwealth. This bill was taken up my the Pennsylvania League of Boroughs. It was considered by them and they reported adversely. It seems to me that when there is a mischief to remedy this is not the right manner to remedy it through other counties and school districts and boroughs throughout the Commonwealth and they should not be required to follow the procedure provided for in this bill.

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the reason why we are trying to get a specified bill to file these plans and specifications is, that at the present time they disappear out of the engineer's and borough and secretary's office. The small expense of three dollars will save the community a great many dollars of money. It was money well spent.

On the question, recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page three of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, House Bill No. 215, file folio 865.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calender by Mr. Stadtlander,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 215, entitled:

An Act for the better protection of fish, requiring citizens of the United States residing in this Commonwealth, to procure a license from the county treasurer to fish or angle in the waters of this Commonwealth, or in the waters bounding or adjacent thereto, and regulating the isssuance of such license; providing penalties for the violation of this act and the manner of proceeding to enforce compliance therewith; and providing for the disposition of the penalties recovered and license fees received.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BRENDLE. Mr. Speaker, first of all we have an anti-pollution bill to consider. I don't feel as though it would be fair for Berks and Schuylkill as well as Lehigh County who are branded with that repeated pollution, although I am not opposed to a fish license bill provided the anti-pollution bill would precede this bill. Gentlemen of the House, is it fair that a resident hunters' license as it was created by the sportsmen of this State, would only charge a man twenty-one years of age to pay a resident hunter's license and that it should be passed, and you cannot show me that one woman out of every thousand would take out a hunter's license in the State of Pennsylvania; and yet we attempt and endeavor to charge that boy and girl who come home from college on their vacation and cause them to pay one dollar for the privilege which they had heretofore enjoyed. I don't think it is right. If this bill would be sent back or if the boy and girl would be eliminated, what assurance would we have that the anti-pollution bill would pass in this House and Senate? I think the policy has been to wreck it on an uncharted island, and that disaster will befall it. I am not safe to vote on this bill and I don't want to vote on this bill unless we eliminate that boy and girl from sixteen to twenty-one years. I am not here to say that this gentleman is not to exercise his fair right in the direction of propagating fish in Pennsylvania to such an extent that we would all be satisfied. I am not insinuating against this man who is fair in all of his endeavors, but what are the manufacturing concerns in the State of Pennsylvania trying to do at this time with the anti-pollution bill? They are going to railroad that bill, and the anti-pollution bill does not have a shadow of a chance to pass. Therefore, before we pass on this fish license bill whatever we do we should respect that boy and girl who return from their college work and wish to enjoy that privilege; or if there is any legislation to pass, let us pass it against that manufacturer and not permit the manufacturer to continue polluting the streams as they have been doing in Berks, Schuylkill and Lehigh Counties. We can show that in the Little Lehigh there is not a living fish. That is due because one man had the right to kill thirty thousand dollars' worth of fish in one stream of Pennsylvania. They have inserted in this bill that any man that catches a fish that is under size, must pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars. If you want to hit back, don't hit back at the little man or at the boy or girl or returns from college and wishes to enjoy the privilege of fishing, but hit back on the big man. We are here to ask for a fair and square deal, for every man, woman, boy and girl. I ask you to vote in the negative if you can so decide, and give a square deal to every man in the State.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I was glad to hear the gentleman from Berks make those remarks because I would like to have the opportunity of correcting him. He spoke of the boys being compelled to take out a fisherman's license until they are twenty-one years of age. Everybody that goes into the woods to hunt has to take out a hunter's license from fourteen years of age up to nine hundred and ninety-nine. Therefore, I want to say that the gentleman is laboring under a mistake when he says they must be twenty-one years of age before they take up a hunter's license. The second question is a question of pollution of streams. That is a question that any one of us is interested in. If you gentlemen of the House are interested in the conservation of the natural resources of Pennsylvania; if you are interested in the conservation of fish and game; if you are interested to the extent that years from now you would be glad to take your grand children out in the woods and show them real deer and give them a real treat in the sportsman's life in preference to the picture on the wall; if you are interested to the extent of preserving fish and game in Pennsylvania as this bill provides for the preservation of fish, we appeal to you to give us money enough to stop the pollution of the streams in the State of Pennsylvania. I have seen these arguments coming up during every session that I have been here, and I have been here during four sessions, and every time it comes up out of the Appropriation Committee, a bill is offered calling for from three to four hundred thousand dollars to make that Department successful, but we have never been able to get that amount of money. There was objection to the bill having to do with the protection of game. It came from that section, objecting to the taking away the opportunity of shooting game and of interfering with the privilege of the poor sportsman, and there were men in the House who were opposed to that bill. To-day there is not one per cent. of the people of Pennsylvania who would ask the people of the State to repeal that bill. We are asking for a bill to produce revenue, and to support one of the greatest departments in the State of Pennsylvania in which we are interested. You know as well as I do that this measure is a revenue measure; it is a measure that will permit a program that will provide revenue to secure fish for the different streams of the State of Pennsylvania, and in conjunction with that we have the assurance of the Commissioner of Fisheries that he will see that the streams that are being polluted which can be reached at all will be taken care of if he has money enough to take care of them. But up to this time he has not had money sufficient to take care of the fish in the streams of the State of Pennsylvania. We must preserve what the great Creator has handed down to us. Let us be men enough to stand up at this time and pass any law that will protect the fish of Pennsylvania.

Mr. McCURDY. Mr. Speaker, if you will just refer back a few years when they first planted along the streams of our great Commonwealth, you will find that hydro-electric power plants were to be used for the business of the Corporations, for the sake of profit. I understand that this Commonwealth derives no revenue from that privilege which is interfering with the proper movement of the fish up and down the streams of the Commonwealth. If a reasonable tax were placed on the power plants for the use of the streams there would be sufficient revenue to re-stock the streams and have money to spare and if we were to impose a proper fine for the pollution of our streams by the manufacturing establishments, we would also recover sufficient money to propogate fish and replenish our streams. I think this bill is un-American. It takes away from the people their inherent rights. They should enjoy the privilege of going out and enjoying the day by going along the streams and fishing. It is a very helpful and innocent enjoyment. It does not injure the lives of others like that of hunting with a dangerous weapon, therefore, I oppose the passage of this bill.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the gentlemen who are opposed to this bill to-night are looking at it from the wrong viewpoint. There is no bill before this House tonight for the purpose of purifying the streams of this Commonwealth. I am a member of this House and I have received various communications relative to the various bills that are upon the calendar, but I have not received a single protest against this bill which is before us tonight. I come from a county where there is but little fishing done, and I have received not a single protest from any constituent in my district against this measure. I cannot see why any member should object to a measure of this kind to help this particular part of our State Government to make it possible for our citizens to have better fishing if they had sufficient funds to make it possible. I have received from this particular department, which this bill will effect, fish when I asked for them, and those have not been put in the county which I represent but in other counties in the State.

I further state, Mr. Speaker, that the time ought to be here not when the members of this body who are opposed to this particular bill should cease criticizing the department that is asking them at this time for sufficient revenue to take care of their department and give to the people of this Commonwealth sufficient fish that those who desire to go out and fish the streams will find fish therein.

Furthermore, I believe that this particular department would become indeed more efficient in the work in which it is engaged if it were placed on equality with our Game Commission. They are not asking more than our Game Commission is asking, and today there is no critizem as to the small tax that the citizens pay for the privilege which they enjoy of hunting game. This does not apply to the individual who does not desire to fish, but any individual who desires to go out and fish the streams of this Commonwealth. I believe if they are real sports, and are desirous to go out and get for themselves that which they are seeking, they should not be opposed to this measure. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I trust each and every member of this House will think most seriously before he votes against this measure.

Mr. WOODRUFF. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen, I happen to come from a county where the people do some fishing and where there are some fish, and I want to say that the people who are engaged in the sport of fishing in my county, with the rarest exceptions, are against this bill. They were against the bill two years ago: they are against the bill now. They think they are being robbed of the last vestage of liberty of going out and doing something that they wish to do by being hampered with regulations and law. It has been said that this bill is a revenue raiser. Gentlemen of the House, I do not think we ought to begin raising revenue in this way, with the people who are least able to pay. Those who go out and do the fishing are people generally who need the recreation and sport, or rather those whose lives are so dull and monotonous that they can only get a little recreation and sport in this way. They live in the rural sections; they live where the streams are. The streams have been theirs in a measure from time immemorial, and they feel that their rights are being outraged when they are asked to pay a license fee of one dollar to go out and fish. There are many people who will go out and fish for only a half day in an entire season, and if you say to them they must have a license to do this, you will rob them of this opportunity. There are many farmers who have but very little time for any sort of recreation, and when they and their children feel that they can go and take a day for catching a few fish and have a little sport by the stream, come out in the open and have their dinners there, or their suppers, then they are compelled before they can cast a hook to pay a dollar license fee. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House the people of my county are opposed to this measure.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, very briefly I would like to answer the argument by the gentleman, Mr. Woodruff. If he will take the trouble to read the bill, he will find in the bill that the farmers are exempt from this tax; he will find also that children under sixteen years of age are exempt from this tax. We tried to exempt the ladies from this bill, but since the ladies have become citizens and voters we had to include them to make it constitutional, so I am sorry that the gentleman has taken that attitude. The men who live on farms have the right under this bill to fish without securing this license. We have taken the precaution to give them that privilege.

One more word. The hunters' license bill provides for a license of one dollar for the men of the State of Pennsylvania to hunt in the forests of Pennsylvania for a period of forty-five days. This license fee of one dollar provides that the fishermen of the State of Pennsylvania can fish the entire year for the same one dollar. Surely there can be no objection from an economical standpoint, surely there can be no objection from a revenue raiser standpoint, and surely there can be no objection from a conservative standpoint. Gentlemen of the House we ask you in all fairness to support this measure of our Pennsylvania Department of Fisheries.

Mr. WOODRUFF. Mr. Speaker, just a word in reply to the gentleman who just sat down. I have read this bill, and I appreciate the fact that the farmer can do a little fishing if the streams run through his property, but if he goes anywhere else he would have to pay that license. It is not fair to hundreds of people who live out in the rural counties and far away from the opportunity of having any recreation to be hampered by this kind of measure. Moreover if it comes to a question of being a revenue raiser I wish to say that as soon as this House will go on record and make the corporations and the big bodies do their share in giving revenue to the State of Pennsylvania, I shall be for this measure.

Mr. BRENDLE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman told the members of this House that the farmer is exempt. There is many a farmer in the State of Pennsylvania where there is no stream crossing his land, and that farmer is not exempt at all in fishing anywhere except he takes out a fisherman's license. I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clearfield.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Phillips, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILLIPS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRENDLE. If I catch a fish under size or with a device not provided by this law, what would be the result?

Mr. PHILLIPS. There is no under size fish.

Mr. BRENDLE. If I catch a fish with a device not provided by law, in other words, if I should be arrested for violating this law, what would be the fine?

Mr. PHILLIPS. You would be punished the same as any other citizen.

Mr. BRENDLE. What would be the fine?

Mr. PHILLIPS. I forget what it is,—it is in the fish law. I believe it is twenty-five dollars.

Mr. BRENDLE. Mr. Speaker, I know of a man in Lehigh who killed over three thousand fish, destroyed a whole hatchery, and he only paid a fine of one hundred dollars. Is that right, gentlemen of the House?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I want to answer that question. It costs four hundred dollars—that is the least that the Fish Commisisoner has ever paid to try and prosecute one man for the pollution of streams. You may ask how that is made up. If you are familiar with the courts, as many of the attorneys here are, you know that it requires two chemists to come into court with samples of the water taken at different times.

They require also evidence, outside evidence, to prove that this man was the owner of the factory or mill, or whatever it was that polluted this stream. All this evidence taken together, and the prosecution, costs at least four hundred dollars. The Fisheries Department has never had enough money to prosecute the people guilty of polluting these streams, and we have a bill following this, which, if you will read it, is a bill to prosecute the people who do pollute the streams of Pennsylvania, so long as it does not interfere with the welfare of the State, and we propose to follow this up with that bill. I want to say that I am for that bill, provided it takes care of all of the pollution. What we want to do now is to give the Fisheries Department money enough to prosecute the cases and carry them on successfully.

Mr. BRENDLE. Mr. Speaker, if that is the case, why did they not precede this bill with the anti-pollution bill? I will state here that there is a trick back of that bill. We asked time and again that the anti-pollution bill should precede the fisherman's license bill, and I would vote for a fisherman's license bill if it did that, and then I could go home to my people in Berks County and give them the assurance that the streams throughout this state would be kept clear from pollution. But I say it is unfair to precede this bill and then take and defeat that bill, the anti-pollution bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were then taken.

Mr. McCURDY. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified as follows:

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Lord God, we would lift our voices this morning in behalf of one whose office has even been treated with contempt; namely, the Vice President of the United States, whose position, many feel, is but the doorway to oblivion, where all ambition must cease. Grant, however, that he may bring to that position more than the position brings to him, and may it not be an exalted nonentity; and help him to serve to the fullness of his capacity, which we all realize to be great; and if it is not to be for him a stepping-stone to something better, may he willingly become the stepping-stone for others and exert an influence far reaching beyond the sphere of his place and power. And may it be to us all an example, to be willing to take places that do not show preferment, and may our lives count, if not for ourselves, at least for others; and may we be willing to bury all that concerns us and be willing to let others rear upon our entire oblivion that which shall mean for them the rearing of a better fabric. Amen.

Mr. DAWSON. The purpose of this bill is to increase the number on the commission from four to seven.

Mr. BOLARD. What is the purpose of increasing the number on the board from four to seven? Is it becoming more laborious to raise fish?

Mr. DAWSON. This bill was introduced at the suggestion of the Governor, and with the approval of the Commissioner of Fisheries, both of whom after considerable experience have decided, in view of the fact that we expect to do a lot of additional work in the propagation of fish, that the commission should be increased from four to seven, at no increased cost to the state.

Mr. DAWSON. It does not.

NAYS—1.

Brendle,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up on page 6 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, House Bill No. 437. File Folio No. 883.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Ogle,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 437, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three and four of an act approved the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty (P. L. 272), entitled "An act for the levy and collection of taxes upon proceedings in courts, and in the office of register and recorder, and for other purposes."

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Ogle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. SOWERS. I would like to know what the object is of increasing the cost of divorce ten dollars.

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, this bill and the bill that has just passed on third reading are revenue measures, meeting the approbation His Excellency, Governor Sproul. This bill has been prepared over the lines of the old bill, of which it is an amendment. An act was passed in 1830, ninety years ago, fixing the tax to be paid to the Commonwealth on actions of assumpsit and actions of trespass at fifty cents. The writ of habeas corpus was exempted from any tax. Taxes on appeals from justices of the peace and transcripts of their judgments were fixed at twenty-five cents. The present bill increases the tax on all those processes just double that. That is to say, on the original writs of assumpsit and trespass from fifty cents to one dollar; on transcripts and appeals from twenty-five cents to fifty cents; on libels in divorce the tax is made ten dollars. This is in line with the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania which permits classifications to be made of the subjects of taxation. The writ of divorce is fixed at ten dollars for a variety of reasons. For instance, the writ of assumpsit and the writ of trespass are within the lines of original writs as defined by Blackstone. They are brought in the courts of common pleas for the enforcement of contracts expressed or implied. The action for divorce is for the contrary purpose. It is not for the enforcement of a contract which a man has made by himself or which the common law has made for him, but it is for the purpose of enabling him to get out of a contract, to be relieved from a contract that he has now, for some reason, come to believe is onerous and burdensome to him. Every man and every woman when they enter into the marriage relation make a contract with each other and before the Almighty, that they will love, honor and cherish each other so long as they both shall live. By the grace of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and the courts acting under the authority of the same; they are permitted to come into the courts and permitted to be relieved from the obligations of that solemn contract. Now, Mr. Speaker, the proceedings in divorce in Pennsylvania have become so lax that it has arisen to the proportions of a public scandal, and divorces are now as easily procured in the State of Pennsylvania as they are in the State of Nevada. No occasion to go to Reno now to obtain a divorce. A majority of the lawyers who make their living by procuring divorces are opposed to the imposition of a tax of ten dollars which goes to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Now the State at large has been looking to the Legislature of Pennsylvania and to the courts for some relief, for some mitigation of this State-wide scandal and disgrace. Now let us, if we can, instead of throwing roses in the way, in the path of divorce, let us make it so that the high contracting parties will stop and listen and consider before they rush into the divorce courts.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman further. Do you not believe that the courts should be open and free, as free as they possibly can be so that the poor and the rich may enter to obtain justice, or do you believe that the cost, or the revenue should be put on litigation so as to deprive the poor of their rights.

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, being a lawyer, I say surely the courts should be open, and they are open. The courts of equity are open all the time, day and night. The courts of law are open to proper litigation. There is no discrimination here in this bill, Mr. Speaker, and there is no denial of justice to the poor or to the rich. The taxes in this bill are equally imposed. They meet the requirements of the Constitution and it is up to the high-toned gentlemen of the Pennsylvania Legislature to say whether or not they are going to meet the moral and Christian sentiment of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by making the obtaining of a divorce a more thorny road to travel than it is now, strewn as it is with roses. Why the gentlemen who are so active in that part of the judicial administration of the State—

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to this bill because I believe it to be a very wrong principle to endeavor to raise revenue by taxing the privilege of going into court. Whatever man has a right, whatever man has been wrong, whatever man has had something done to him that needs correction should have a court open to hear his complaint, and his complaint should be heard without being the means of raising taxes, without being the means of raising revenue, that should be heard publicly, quickly, speedily and without delay. If some poor man or some poor woman to-day has a grievance, has a wrong against somebody, before he or she can start the case, the lawyer must be paid and all of the costs and then if they are apt to pay ten dollars more, and God knows how much more they will have to pay, they will not be able to obtain justice. Why put the additional burden on the poor? My friend talks about a bill in equity. The members of this House know that equity litigation is a privilege of the wealthy, and that a poor man cannot indulge in it. He must print a bill, pay money for costs, employ a printer, and he can hardly start his case under one hundred dollars. Why should divorce cases be put in the same category that the luxury of the rich, the bills in equity, are?

Mr. GREEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GREEN. I would like to ask the gentleman if he has had much experience as master in divorce cases.

Mr. SOWERS. Replying to you and your colleague, I would say that I have had some thirty or forty appointments in the last ten years.

Mr. GREEN. Mr. Speaker, I object to that. I am asking this question for myself, not for any colleague.

Mr. SOWERS. Well, I have had some experience. I have had thirty or forty cases, and if my friend wants a good master, I can serve him.

Mr. GREEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman, and ask what fees are charged by masters in divorce cases.

Mr. SOWERS. In Philadelphia, I am sorry to say, the court has fixed that fee as high as seventy-five dollars, and if you add ten dollars more to that expense, where will the poor man may get justice?

Mr. GREEN. I guess the lawyers are not bothering much about the poor people so long as they get their fees.

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to this bill because the bill as it now stands is unconstitutional, and will be so declared by the courts. We want to defeat this bill and then take it up and put it into constitutional form and get the proper revenue for the State.

Article 9, Section 1, of the Constitution, says that "All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects within the territorial limit of the authority levying the tax." Here is a class that is taxed, the original writ, and now my friend, Mr. Ogle, makes a sub-division of that class which is clearly unconstitutional. It is also against the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States. I will just mention a few cases which have been so decided. The act of May 12, 1897, P. L. 76, was passed for the purpose of levying a two per cent. tax on the estates of deceased people. In 1917 there was an exception, providing that five thousand dollars of all estates were exempt from taxation. That act was declared unconstitutional in a decision by Justice Sterrett. You all remember the coal tax bill that we passed in 1913, taxing anthracite coal. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania declared that act unconstitutional because it made a distinction between anthracite and bituminous coal. It was declared unconstitutional in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Alden Coal Company, 251 Pa., 134, "the act of June 27, 1913, P. L. 639, providing for the levying of a tax on anthracite coal and for the collection and distribution of the same, violates section 1, of article 9, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, directing that all taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects within the territorial limit of the authority levying the tax in that it makes an artificial and arbitrary distinction between anthracite and bituminous coal, subjecting the former to tax for public purposes and not the latter, and is void."

Then there is the case of the Limestone Company, Ltd., vs. Fagley, 187 Pa., 193. In this act a tax was assessed upon persons employing foreigners in their work. Justice Sterrett, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, used this language in declaring that act unconstitutional: "The act of June 15, 1897, P. L. 166, entitled 'An act regulating the employment of foreign-born unnaturalized male persons over twenty-one years of age and imposing a tax on the employers of such persons' is unconstitutional because it offends against the Fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States and also against section 1, of article 9, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which provides that 'All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects.'"

Now, I have one more case and then I will quit. A Texas statute allowed the plaintiff in a suit for less than fifty dollars against a railroad company an attorney's fee of ten dollars. That act was carried from the state of Texas up to the Supreme Court of the United States, and this is the language used in that case, Railway Company vs. Ellis, 165 U. S., page 150: "The mere fact of classification is not sufficient to relieve a statute from the reach of the equity clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, and in all cases it must appear not merely that a classification has been made, but also that it is based upon some reasonable ground, something which bears a just and proper relation to the attempted classification, and is not a mere arbitrary selection. Tested by these principles, the statute in controversy must fail."

Now this bill that is before us no doubt will be declared unconstitutional. We should defeat this bill; let us vote it down and then we can resurrect it and put it into proper form with the classification out, with the exception in some classes taken out, and we will have the same amount of revenue and the same amount of right and equal justice as is the case now.

Mr. OGLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to answer the gentleman from Berks for a moment. This bill does not prevent the rich or the poor from entering into the courts, and passing on anything. The measure, or the receipts from the measure will aggregate about $800,000 during the balance of the term of Governor Sproul. In answer to the argument made by the gentleman from Berks, I wish to say, the Constitution, article 9, section 1, provides that taxes shall be uniform upon the same classes of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws.

From this it is to be seen the Constitution permits classification of the different subjects for taxation. It has been ruled by the courts that this provision of the Constitution is satisfied if a license fee or tax is uniform on all the subjects of a certain class, and the classification is proper. The Constitution exacts not uniformity of taxing laws, but uniformity of taxes, and the basis of assessment against all subjects in the same class must be the same, as was ruled in Commonwealth vs. Shamokin, Sunbury and Lewisburg Railroad Company, 3 Dauphin County, 168, 1911. This provision of the Constitution does not prohibit a proper classification of the subjects of taxation. All that it requires is that the taxes shall be uniform upon the members of the class, as decided by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in the case of Commonwealth vs. Edgerton Coal Company, 164 Pa. 284, 1894. All that is required is that the classification shall be made according to some reasonable, practicable rule, drawn from experience which will prevent gross inequalities in the burdens of taxation; 15 Superior Court, 612.

Making corporate loans or obligations a separate class for purposes of taxation was approved in the case of Commonwealth vs. Delaware Division Canal Company, 123 Pa. 594, 1889, and the Commonwealth vs. City of Chester, 123 Pa. 626, 1889, and to the same effect in various other cases.

The classification of vendors into wholesale and retail, and the sub-classification of dealers at an exchange or board of trade, is legitimate classification, as is held by the court in Knisely vs. Cotterel, 196 Pa. 614, 1900, affirming 3 Dauphin County, 120, 1900, and it has been held that the exemption of building and loan associations from the operation of the law does not offend against the Constitution: Fox's Appeal, 112 Pa. 387, 1886.

The State at the present time levies a capital stock tax on all corporations, and in the same act exempts from the provisions thereof so much of the capital stock of manufacturing and laundering companies as is actually employed in manufacturing and laundering. At the same time the Commonwealth also imposes a gross receipt tax upon railroads, railways, pipe line companies, telephone and telegraph companies, and other common carriers, without placing them under the broad head of public service companies, thus making a class within a class.

The old law makes a classification of the subjects that are taxed by the bill in that it makes the tax on original process issuing out of the court of common pleas fifty cents, exempting entirely the writ of habeas corpus, as does the proposed present bill, and it also places in a separate class the litigation coming from the justice's courts into the courts of common pleas by placing thereon a tax of only twenty-five cents, in each particular appeal or transcript. The same classification is recognized in the present bill by placing upon such proceedings a tax of only fifty cents.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. W. W. Jones.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Jones, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know the real purpose of this bill and what he wishes to accomplish by it.

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, it is a bill requiring the passing of a budget by boroughs and providing a tax levy.

Mr. MARSHALL. How is that done under the present act?

Mr. JONES. Some boroughs adopt a budget and others do not.

Mr. MARSHALL. How does this bill provide for the passage of a budget?

Mr. JONES. Why, by an ordinance, of course.

Mr. MARSHALL. What are the present provisions of the borough act in regards to that?

Mr. JONES. I do not what the present provisions are. I know some boroughs have budget systems at the present time and some do not and this is to put them all on the same basis.

Mr. MARSHALL. In passing an ordinance in adopting a budget, would it be necessary to have this advertised and incur the expense of advertising?

Mr. JONES. Every ordinance is supposed to be advertised and as I understand it, the objection of the party making the inquiry is that the newspapers in the western part of the State fleece them and that is his only objection to the bill.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, it is not my intention or desire to take very much time this afternoon discussing this bill. As a matter of fact I do not believe it will be necessary. There are many features of this bill that to my mind are objectionable, but the feature that I want to speak of specially is the feature providing that all budgets must be adopted by an ordinance. Under the present borough code, passed in 1915, there is no such requirement. Under the provisions of this bill, if it is enacted into a law every one of the 930 or more boroughs in this State must during the beginning of every year pass an ordinance adopting a budget. One of the sections of the present borough code provides that all ordinances must be published. Under the present borough code you can work out your budget system just as you can under the provisions of this bill, but it can be done in two ways, either by ordinance or by resolution. If the borough assessors adopt it by a resolution you do not have any advertising expense and you do not have any expense connected with the drafting of an ordinance. Under the provisions of this bill there is no choice left to the boroughs. They must adopt their budget and pass an ordinance setting out the full details of that budget and under the provisions as it now stands, under the act of 1915, that ordinance must be published, and that incurs an enormous expense on many of the small boroughs of the State that should not be asked to incur this expense. If my friend from Lackawanna has a condition in his county for which he deems it necessary to have a budget adopted and passed by ordinance, or if any of his municipalities have such a condition, the code gives them full authority to follow that practice, but if there is such a condition there and it is necessary to follow that system in adopting it, that is no reason why the other boroughs of all the other sixty-five counties of this State should be required to adopt the same system and incur that heavy extra expense in order to carry it out. To my mind, gentlemen, we are legislating at this time under conditions which require us to adopt a policy of economy. We should not follow any line of legislation that is going to add burdens and expenses to the municipalities of this State and in turn upon the taxpayers located in those municipalities in order to meet the necessary expenses of their administration because of certain requirements of legislative procedure which entails this additional expense, and to my mind it is our duty instead of adding expense, instead of stipulating requirements that call for additional expense, instead of that, we should adopt a policy of relieving them of some of the burdens they have at the present time. It is almost impossible to get any kind of borough legislation through now without complying with a lot of advertising which has been provided for in existing laws that have been passed in this House from time to time. I am opposed to this bill for that reason alone. It is unfair to put this expense on the municipalities. In some small boroughs it will amount to a very great hardship, and there is nothing gained in the end that is not already accomplished by their present code.

I want to say further, gentlemen, that the boroughs of this State in their convention held in this city a few weeks ago considered this bill. The convention representing nine hundred thirty some boroughs, and this is the record that they have had made of this particular bill. Page 131 of the Borough Bulletin at the bottom of the first column you will find, "House Bill No. 207 providing for a budget requiring ordinances and advertising and restricted appropriations are strenuously negatived." This gentlemen speaks for nine hundred thirty some boroughs, and I ask the members of this house in fairness to the people represented in these districts to vote against this bill and not put this additional burden on the people living in those particular boroughs.

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, this bill places the boroughs in the same position that townships of the first class are in; it places the boroughs on the same level requiring advertising in two newspapers. I do not see why anybody should object to having a business administration in boroughs. The State of Pennsylvania, at least the women's organizations of this state are asking us to adopt a state budget, and it certainly ought to be a good thing to have a borough budget where it strikes right home to us.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I am not objecting to this bill because it provides for a budget system. Under the Borough Code of 1915 we can provide a budget system and we can adopt this system by a resolution. The thing I am objecting to is not the budget system, but what I am objecting to is the requirement in this bill that requires a borough to adopt this system by an ordinance. I say the code already provides that it can be done by a resolution. It should not be required to incur the expense of advertising an ordinance.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker, in rising to oppose this bill I want to say to all that I am not opposed to a budget system. I am opposed to the requirements as mentioned by the gentleman from Beaver of requiring this budget to be advertised. It might just as well be authorized by a resolution without the constant expense connected with the advertising of ordinances. Another reason why I am opposed to the bill is because it says that this budget must be adopted on or before the first day of March. In most of the boroughs in Allegheny County, a rule of procedure is adopted whereby all ordinances presented for consideration to the body must pass at least two or three readings, and I think that is a very good precautionary measure. Under this bill if that were so I think it is reasonable to say that no council when it organized on the first day of January is in a position to say what the budget shall contain and what the millage of the borough should be. Under this bill that must be passed on the first day of March. That only gives borough councils from the meeting in February to consider the enactment of a budget system and pass it by three readings or pass it finally in the meeting in February. We all know that there are few of the boroughs that have more than one meeting in each month, and I think that this bill requiring that the budget be adopted by the first day of March is fixing too short a time. Another objection to the bill is because of the provision in it requiring the bond of the treasurer and the secretary to be verified at the instance of any citizen or any group of citizens. The treasurer's bond can be taken before the court on a petition of twenty-five citizens and the treasurer's bond must be verified on the peution of one citizen. The borough councils are elected by the people and they are just as competent to pass on the validity or the reliability of the bond of the treasurer and of the secretary as any conscientious objector or irresponsible intermeddler in borough affairs.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker, I would move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. W. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion

The motion was agreed to.

MR. WILLIAMS IN THE CHAIR.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate bill No. 413, (House No. 130) entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Highway Department for the construction of permanent State highways for the payment of the Commonwealeh's share in the expenses of constructing State-aid highways for the maintenance and repair of State highways within the limits of boroughs for the maintenance and repair of State-aid highways for the payment of rewards due townships of the second class for the payment of damages of property caused or occasioned in connection with the work of the State Highway Department

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JONES. Mr. President, before voting for this bill, which I, of course, propose to do, I feel it incumbent upon me to call the attention of the Senate to one very unjust and unfair provision in this bill, on page two, line nineteen, "for the payment of rewards to townships of the second class as provided in the act of July fifteenth one thousand nine hundred and nineteen the sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary." Mr. President, this is appropriating to the second class townships of the state only one-half as much as they received two years ago for the two years. In other words, two years ago, we appropriated a little over a million dollars to clean up the bonus provision to the second class townships for dirt roads and in addition to that in the passage of the reward act for townships of the second class we appropriated a million dollars for the one year, 1920, so that in the two appropriations we gave the townships of the second class a little over two million dollars. In this act we are now giving them only one million dollars for the two years. It is exceedingly unfair and unfortunate, the provisions in this bill, but we do not feel that we should at this time amend the bill or oppose the passage of the bill, because it is of vital importance to the Highway Department and the highway work of this State, the speedy passage of this act; but those of us who represent a constituency of second class townships do propose to ask, in the general appropriation bill, an increase of another million or two millions for this purpose, and I feel that at this time attention should be called to that fact, because it is of vital importance, Mr. President and Gentlemen of Senate, to every one who represents a constituency of that kind that we are aware of this fact and that you make an effort to obtain some more revenue for the state. That is where the crux of the whole matter is, so that later in the session we may be able to add one or two millions to this fund which is of such vital importance to the country districts.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I am in hearty accord with the statements made by the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Jones, and believe that if the revenue can be found that there should be a larger appropriation made for the bill, but I hope that there will be no effort made to-day to put this bill over, because it is of vital importance to the road program of the state that these bills be gotten through at the earliest practical moment, in order that the Highway Department may know just what money they have available on which they can rely for this year's program. I will co-operate with the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Jones, to the fullest extent of my ability that the revenue can be found to get a larger amount of money for the road system.

Mr. JONES. I agree entirely with the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee and my remarks upon this bill were not in a general way to oppose the bill in any way. I ask every Senator to vote for this bill that it may be put through this morning. It should not be delayed a bit.

Mr. J. S. Miller. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, I am heartily in accord with Senator Jones. This appropriation for township rewards is out of proportion, although I may say at this time I shall vote for the bill this morning. I invite the attention of the Senate to this matter of appropriations to second class townships. It is our duty to co-operate with the townships who are now asking and demanding all over the state more revenue and who have asked for more than they are receiving.
